

SIX CANZONETS

Composed by

H.W. AMADEUS BEALE.

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 1. SWEET GOOD NIGHT.....                      | 3  |
| 2. FAREWELL.....                              | 3  |
| 3. I'VE SOUGHT THEE.....                      | 3  |
| 4. THERE'S NOT A LOOK OR WORD OF THINE.....   | 3  |
| 5. HOW SWEETLY DOOTH THE MOONLIGHT SMILE..... | 24 |
| 6. AT THE STILL HOUR OF NIGHT.....            | 3  |

ALBANY, N.Y.
PUBLISHED BY J.H. HIDLEY.

Entered as second-class matter, May 10, 1879, under No. 2163, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

FAREWELL.

H. W. A. BEALE.

Andante.

VOICE.

When eyes . . . are beam - ing, What

PIANO.

sempre legato.

tongue might nev - er tell; . . . When tears . . . are stream - ing,

From their crys - tal cell; When hands are link'd that dread to part; Oh!

hit - ter, hit - ter is the smart, Oh! hit - ter, hit - ter is the smart, Of

rall:

rall:

them that bid fare - well. When hope..... is colla voce. a tempo.

chid - den, That fain of bliss would tell,..... And love..... for -

- bid - den, In the heart to dwell; When fet - ter'd by a view - less chain, We turn and gaze and turn a - gain, Oh! death were mer - cy to the pain, Of them that bid fare - well. BISHOP HERER.